Retention in service beyond the date of compulsory retirement of a Government servant against whom an enquiry into a charge of misconduct is pending.

GOVERNMENT OF BOMBAY.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT.

Resolution No. 3162/33.

Bombay Castle, 26th February 1949.

RESOLUTION OF GOVERNMENT.

Government has had under consideration the question whether a Government servant whose case falls under clause (d) of Bombay Civil Services Rule 161 should, on his honourable acquittal of the charge against him, be given the full pay and allowances admissible under Bombay Civil Services Rule 152(a) for the period of extension beyond the date of compulsory retirement. It has now been decided after careful consideration, that, in such cases, the payment of pay and allowance should be restricted, for the period of extension beyond the date of compulsory retirement, to either subsistence allowance already granted under clause (b) of Bombay Civil Services Rule 151 or the amount of pension admissible to him had he retired in the normal course, whichever is greater. It has been further decided that the period of extension should not be allowed to count towards pension.

Age of compulsory retirement.

GOVERNMENT OF BOMBAY

FINANCE DEPARTMENT.

Resolution No. 6567/33.

Bombay Castle, 4th October 1949.

Read Government Circular, No. 3162/33, dated 20th October 1947.

RESOLUTION.-- The Government of Bombay has had under consideration the recommendations of the Central Pay Commission andof the Administrative Enquiry Committee in respect of the age of compulsory retirement for Government servants. While the Central Pay Commission has recommended that the age of compulsory retirement should uniformly be 58 years. (the recommendation has been suggested by the Government of India), the Administrative Enquiry Committee has suggested that the existing rule viz., Bombay Civil Services Rule 161. should continue unaltered in its essential provisions. After careful consideration of the question, Government is pleased to decide that, for the present, the age of compulsory retirement for Government servants should remain 55 years, except as otherwise provided in clauses (b) and (c) of Bombay Civil Services Rule 161.
